Day 5 – Plitvice Lakes National Park + Trogir... Then Onward to Split

This morning, you'll discover the breathtaking beauty of Plitvice Lakes National Park 🌍. Over thousands of years, flowing waters over limestone and chalk have left behind travertine barriers. Ranging in hue from azure and emerald to steely grey, they're connected by rushing cascades that continue the geological processes that originally created them.

Today, well maintained trails and unobtrusive wooden walkways allow you to behold and experience the majestic beauty of these pristine lakes and their beautiful forest setting. You'll also see the Emperor's Mosque, built in 1457 after the Ottoman conquest of Bosnia, and the Franciscan Monastery of St. Anthony. The Sarajevo Freedom Tunnel Museum offers a sobering yet inspiring look at how residents survived the Siege of Sarajevo. Originally extending for nearly 900 yards, this hand-dug tunnel supplied arms and food during the 3-year siege.
